

MOBILE TELECOM NETWORK (HOLDINGS) LIMITED

流動電訊網絡(控股)有限公司*

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED 30 JUNE 2003 QUARTERLY RESULTS ANNOUNCEMENT

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET (“GEM”) OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE “STOCK EXCHANGE”)

GEM has been established as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a high investment risk may be attached. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. Furthermore, there may be risks arising out of the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM and the business sectors or countries in which the companies operate. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

The principal means of information dissemination on GEM is publication on the Internet website operated by the Stock Exchange. Listed companies are not generally required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers. Accordingly, prospective investors should note that they need to have access to the GEM website in order to obtain up-to-date information on GEM-listed issuers.

The Stock Exchange takes no responsibility for the contents of this announcement, makes no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this announcement.

This announcement, for which the directors (the “Directors”) of Mobile Telecom Network (Holdings) Limited (the “Company”) collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM (the “GEM Listing Rules”) for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief:- (1) the information contained in this announcement is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading; (2) there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement in this announcement misleading; and (3) all opinions expressed in this announcement have been arrived at after due and careful consideration and are founded on bases and assumptions that are fair and reasonable.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Business Review

The consolidated turnover of the Group for the three months ended 30 June 2003 amounted to HK$600,486 (three months ended 30 June 2002: HK$943,824). Loss attributable to shareholders was narrowed to HK$2,219,887 (three months ended 30 June 2002: HK$2,243,947), while loss per share was HK0.56 cents (three months ended 30 June 2002: HK0.69 cents), representing a significant reduction of 18.8% compared to the corresponding period last year.

The outbreak of Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (“SARS”) in the Asia Pacific region over the past few months had an adverse impact on the economy in the region. The situation also affected the Group’s performance during the period under review. Several business agreements, including some confirmed purchase orders, were postponed. At the same time, as the business of customized software developments targeted the PRC market and required a frequent physical presence in the PRC in addition to visiting sites and providing site support, the Group’s performance was also affected by SARS.

The Group’s operating expenses were reduced by approximately 6.6% to HK$2,977,281 (three months ended 30 June 2002: HK$3,188,882) narrowing the loss attributable to shareholders. This was due to the effective cost-control measures adopted by the Group over the past few months including a temporary salary deduction for the management, employees and directors.

During the review period, service fees from the provision of mobile data solutions and related services, and the sales of MobileSurf-installed pocket personal computers and computer accessories, made the major contribution to the Group’s income, accounting for 66% and 23% of turnover, both recorded a progressive rise compared to the corresponding period last year and the previous quarter ended 31 March 2003. This development indicates that the Group is now making progress in achieving recurring revenues from its mobile data services with mobile operators and is less dependent on software development contracts from independent and related parties.

Prospects

With the retreat of SARS in late June, the overall economic environment is gradually turning positive and the Group is confident that its business will recover and develop further in the next few months.

Looking ahead, with its sophisticated research and development capabilities, the Group will continue to focus on strengthening its development in applications and solutions for MobileSurf with new and added features. At the same time, the Group will enhance its business with the various telecommunication operators. To achieve this end, MTel Limited (“MTel”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group, is partnering Hutchison Telecom to launch the Soccer Betting Java Application for 2.5G and 3G networks that will enable users to browse the LIVE odds, matches, team analysis, and news & commentaries. This service, to be launched in early August 2003, will be extended to other telecommunication operators, which is yet to be confirmed.

Additionally, MTel will extend the JAVA applications into Daily Bulletin applications for 2.5G. Users can browse LIVE news and reports including breaking news, local and international news, weather and air pollution reports, traffic conditions around Hong Kong, etc. In addition, market information will also be included in this application with the availability of financial news, currencies, stock quotes and indexes and stock portfolio, etc. CNN News and alert features will also be implemented in phase II. This service is expected to be launched in early September 2003.

Furthermore, MTel is experienced in providing multi-media content and reformatting techniques, as it has been providing this service to Hong Kong CSL Limited since November 2002 on its general packet radio service (GPRS) network. With this experience, MTel will be partnering a leading telecommunication operator to launch a multi-media service for their advanced Enhanced Data rates for Global Evolution (EDGE) network in September 2003. MTel will provide the multi-media content and the reformatting technique for the various mobile handsets.

At the same time, to enhance public awareness of the Group’s products, a Movie Channel for 3G network has been developed. Through this channel users can view movie trailers instantly on their mobile phones, along with detailed movie information for current and upcoming movies i.e. synopses, casting, venues, movie commentaries and news, etc.

To strengthen its brandname, the Group has been working with key film distributors in Hong Kong to line-up different movie tie-in promotions with mobile operators. MTel has received the distribution rights to use content from various movies to develop mobile services such as multimedia messages services (MMS), wallpapers, ringtones and Java games, etc, allowing users to download these services on their mobile phones for their enjoyment and entertainment. MTel, as the content manager and provider of technical support, is proud to provide these one-stop-shop services for both its content partners and mobile operators.
